13 AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

14 303. Defendants incorporate by this reference, as if fully set forth herein,
15 all of its answers in the preceding paragraphs.

16 304. As and for a separate defense and, in the alternative, Plaintiff fails to 17 state a claim upon which relief may be granted.

18 305. As and for a separate defense and, in the alternative, Defendants may 19 be entitled to qualified and/or absolute immunity.

20 306. As and for a separate defense and, in the alternative, Defendants assert 21 that facts relied on in OCR's findings are allegations that have not yet been proven to be 22 true.

23 307. As and for a separate defense and, in the alternative, Plaintiff's
24 damages were directly and proximately caused in whole or in part by the acts or omissions
25 of other parties, named and unnamed, and these answering Defendants' liability to Plaintiff, 26 if any, should be apportioned, denied, or reduced in accordance with each party or non-
27 parties' degree of fault or responsibility.

28

1                   308. As and for a separate defense, and in the alternative, any injuries and
2 damages allegedly sustained by Plaintiff was unrelated to any alleged negligence, fault,
3 misconduct, want of care or breach of a legal duty by these answering Defendants.

4                   309. As and for a separate defense, and in the alternative, no alleged act or
5 omission on the part of these answering Defendants caused or contributed to Plaintiff's
6 claimed injuries and damages.

7                   310. As and for a separate defense, Defendants assert that Plaintiff failed
8 to mitigate said damages in Plaintiff's Complaint.

9                   311. As and for a separate defense and, in the alternative, Defendants also 10 assert ignorance of the law, waiver, contributory or comparative negligence, unclean hands,
11 and permission/invitation/consent.

12                  312. As and for a separate defense, and in the alternative, Plaintiff is not 13 entitled to prejudgment interest on any damages awarded since these damages, if any, are 14 not liquidated.

15                  313. As and for a separate defense and in the alternative, these answering
16 Defendants assert that with respect to the claim for punitive damages, Plaintiff has failed
17 to state claims for which relief may be granted as a matter of law under a number of claims
18 including those arising out of the Title VI violations.

19                  314. As and for a separate defense and in the alternative, these answering
20 Defendants assert that all claims for punitive damages violate the due process clauses of 21 both the Arizona and United States Constitutions.

22                  315. As and for a separate defense and in the alternative, these answering
23 Defendants assert that all claims for punitive damages are not recoverable against public
24 employees or public entities.

25                  316. As and for a separate defense and, in the alternative, the imposition of 26 punitive damages under Arizona law violates the Equal Protection Clause of the Fifth and 27 Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution, as well as the Contract Clause, 28 in each of the following ways.

1                   a.     Arizona law permits the imposition of unlimited punitive damages
 2 that are vastly disproportionate to any actual or compensatory injuries thereby violating the 3 Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution.

4                   b.     Disproportionate punitive damages constitute an arbitrary and
 5 capricious taking of property which is unjustified by any rational governmental interest
 6 thereby violating the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution.

7                   c.     The award of any punitive damages without certain safeguards to 8 guard the jury's discretion in determining the amount of damages is contrary to due process
 9 under the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution.

10                  d.     Arizona does not provide a reasonable limit on the amount of any
 11 punitive damage award thus violating the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States
 12 Constitution.

13                  e.     The substantive standards of liability under which punitive damages 14 are sought in this case are ambiguous, subjective and not reasonably ascertainable and are 15 thus void for vagueness under the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States
 16 Constitution.

17                  f.     Arizona law permits civil punishment upon a standard of proof less
 18 than is required for the imposition of criminal sanctions.

19                  g.     Arizona law permits joint and several punishment of defendants who 20 are guilty of different acts and degrees of culpability.

21                  h.     Arizona law permits multiple awards of punitive damages for the 22 single alleged act or omission.

23                 317. As and for a separate defense and in the alternative, these answering
 24 Defendants assert that Plaintiff is not entitled to recover attorney's fees.

25                 318. Although this answering Defendant does not presently have specific 26 facts in support of the remaining defenses, it wishes to put counsel for Plaintiff on notice
 27 that it hereby raises the affirmative defenses set forth in Rule 8(c) and Rule 12, Federal 28

1 Rules of Civil Procedure, which, through subsequent discovery, may indeed be supported
2 by the facts.

3 WHEREFORE, having fully answered Plaintiff's Complaint, Defendants
4 pray that Plaintiff takes nothing, and that the Complaint be dismissed, and that Defendants
5 be awarded their costs and attorneys' fees incurred herein. Defendants demand a jury trial
6 as to all triable issues.
